Break off session and Focus group questions:

How does your program implement population health?

Population health is

- intertwined in the program.
- a health care policy course.
- Intertwined in courses by incorporating environmental factors/social determinants of health into case studies.
- is not an explicit curriculum piece.
- is incorporated into service learning/pro bono curriculum.
- is incorporated into problem-based learning with opportunities that look at disparities and thinking about broader trends.
- is incorporated into journal club discussions that are optional.

Suggestions on ways that the Education and Pedagogy Consortium can implement population health: Complete qualitative cases with geographic views and have Basecamp discussions.

What opportunities exist for promoting cross-institutional scholarship of teaching and learning?

- Having this group is the starting point book club (Darby, F., & Lang, J.M. (2019). Small teaching online: Applying learning science in online classes. San Francisco, CA: Jossey-Bass.)
- Basecamp

What can we learn from each other about online teaching and learning?

- small group discussions/discussion board;
- Basecamp
