

Nominating Committee - Candidate Bio and Statement – 2025

The information below was provided by each candidate in response to a request to provide a brief bio and statement of interest and qualifications for the position.

Name: Jaime Bicknell PT, DPT, MSPT

Title: Director of Clinical Education/Clinical Assistant Professor

Position: Nominating Committee - Member

Brief Bio	Candidate Statement
Dr. Jaime Bicknell PT, DPT, MPT, is the Director of Clinical Education and Clinical Assistant Professor. She is a three-time graduate of Clarkson University, receiving her Bachelor of Science in Business and Technology Management (2005), Master of Physical Therapy (2007) and Doctor of Physical Therapy (2007). Dr. Bicknell practiced with patients with musculoskeletal and neurological dysfunction before becoming trained in pelvic health in 2016. Dr. Bicknell became an American Board of Physical Therapy Specialties (ABPTS) Women’s Health Clinical Specialist in 2020 and continued her specialty training receiving her Certificate of Achievement in Pelvic Health Physical Therapy (CAPP-Pelvic) through the Academy of Pelvic Health Physical Therapy in 2021. Dr. Bicknell is a fitness coach and avid runner. She is passionate about promoting health and wellness in the female population with special interest in pelvic floor issues in the postpartum patient. Dr. Bicknell is an active member in the New York Physical Therapy Association (NYPTA) Eastern District and the New York/New Jersey (NYNJ) Consortium of Clinical Educators and is a member of the American Physical Therapy Association (APTA) Sections on Pelvic Health and Clinical Education. Locally, Dr. Bicknell is a member of the Potsdam Central School Health and Wellness Committee.	Dr. Jaime Bicknell has been an active member of several American Physical Therapy Sections/Special interest groups including the New York State chapter, the Education Section (Clinical Education Special interest group) and the Academy of Pelvic Health. She has served on the Nominating and Awards committee of the New York/New Jersey Consortium of Clinical Educators since 2021, where she has served as the committee chair since 2024. She also has been a member and chair of the Academy of Pelvic Health Awards committee since 2021, so she has vast experience in the nominating/awards arena. She would like to start taking a more active role in ACAPT.